Introduction

Bismillahir Rahmaanir Raheem

All praises are due solely to Allah Ta'ala. Peace and Salutations be upon our master, Nabí Muhammad Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam.

Our intention in compiling this booklet is neither spite, character assassination nor an assessment of his sincerity and intention etc.

As the contents of this booklet pertain to Deen, we are compelled to enlighten the Ummah as it appears that many unwary Muslims are blindly following him. Imam Muslim Rahmatullah Alayh narrates the statement of the senior Taabí'í, Hadhrat Muhammad Bín Seereen Rahmatullah Alayh, in the introduction to his Saheeh:

"VERILY THIS ILM(KNOWLEDGE) IS DEEN, SO CONSIDER WHOM YOU TAKE YOUR DEEN FROM"

This booklet is a must read for every Muslim who wishes to protect his/her Imaan. The pictures of the wholesale destruction of the Deen by Menk is self-explanatory.

May Allah Ta'ala guide him and grant us the Tawfeeq to repent from our sins and Husne-khatamah (a beautiful Mau on Imaan). Ameen.

MUFTI MENK SKYDIVING

Hadhrat Abu Huraira Radhiyallahu Anhu reports that Rasullullah Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam said:

“My nation will be afflicted by the diseases of the former nations.”

They said, “O Messenger of Allah, what are the diseases of the former nations?” The Prophet said,

“Excessive amusement, ingratitude, disunity, competition for worldly gain, hatred, and greed until there is transgression followed by upheaval.”

Don't do Big Fat Weddings

Mufti Ismail Menk

How to have an Islamic Wedding - Mufti Menk (28 Dec 2013)

“The Hadith speaks about marriage and says: Some of the marriages that are the most blessed are those that the least amount of wealth is used, least extravagance.

You know when we have marriages, we are thought to have a simple marriage. Why? Because it is an act of worship. Marriages are acts of worship and this is why when we have our functions of waleemah, a waleemah is a function out of happiness. It is an act of worship that we have either at the hall of the home. We must make sure that we do not engage in earning the anger of Allah.

Marriage is half of your Imaan according to one of the narrations. The waleemah or that party is the celebration of half of your Imaan. If you are celebrating half of your Imaan by allowing women to come into the gathering who are not even dressed properly or the bride herself is half naked and the groom wants to sit with the females, then you are celebrating half of your Imaan by pleasing Shaitaan! Your marriage won't work. It will not work, I guarantee that.

Also, if you have had a function, where there is a mixed gathering of males and females. Male and female mixing and dining and wining and everything haraam happening in that case we are celebrating half of our Imaan. Let's think how we have done that. We need to make taubah some of us.

Some who are already married have done that. Now do you know why you had problems in your marriage? May Allah protect us. Because the seed, when it was sown, you watered it with urine. May Allah protect us. And that is a very strict statement. It is very harsh but it is the reality.

Believe me, it makes me boil when we think how people will please Shaitaan, may Allah not make us from that. And they won't listen to any of the Ulama and they won't understand, Shaitaan wants to contaminate you from the very celebration of half of your Imaan.

That is why you rather not have the function if you want to have it in the manner that will please Shaitaan. Feed two people at your house, that is enough. Feed the poor in an orphanage. That is enough.

Remember if you've erred in the past, I see the gloomy faces looking at me once again, you need to make taubah and istighfaar. Allah is most forgiving.

Allah is most forgiving most merciful. But we will not promote vice. We will never ever swallow words of justice when we have to utter them just to please people.

The other thing I'd like to bear in mind and I'd like everyone to bear it in mind is that it is prohibited for us to attend a function where haraam is going to happen even if it is the Nikah of your own father or brother or son or sister or uncle or aunt. You will not attend in order not to be amongst those who have made Shaitaan happy when someone is celebrating half of their Imaan.

And it is about time the Ulama of this Ummat decide to abstain and boycott all those functions and waleemahs where there is a mixed gathering.” <https://youtu.be/PQy7BqEFlyY>

The French Prime Minister had said previously that UAE shall provide financial support for the Military operations in Mali

WHO IS MOHAMMED DAHLAN?

Dahlan is known as the “hitman” of the Middle East. He was also behind the 2013 coup d'etat in Egypt, which overthrew the country's first democratically elected president, Mohammed Morsi, who was arbitrarily killed this summer.

Dahlan played a role in the confrontation with Hamas after it won the Palestinian elections in 2006, especially during the June 2007 CIA-backed, UAE-funded coup in Gaza, which backfired and led to the ejection of Fatah from the strip. For then-U.S. President George W. Bush, Dahlan was "our guy." He was relocated to the West Bank, where he was still seen as an asset by the Israelis, but fled to the UAE in 2010. Today, he is the arch-foe of Mahmoud Abbas and is the adviser of Mohammed bin Zayed.

Once Arafat's strongman in the Gaza Strip, Dahlan is now one of the most dangerous people in the Middle East. He was also quietly granted Serbian citizenship four years ago after a closed cabinet meeting session. Most probably it was because he had served Serbian "state interests" after investing billions of dollars in the Balkan nation. The UAE has used those investments in Serbia's arms trade to distribute weapons throughout the Middle East acting as a proxy for Israel.

As a matter of fact, the UAE's collaboration with Israel dates back to the 1990s. According to archived reports, the recent close relationship between the Emiratis and Israel began when bin Zayed wanted to buy fighter aircraft, but was suspicious that Israel would object. Bin Zayed met with Israeli leaders with the help of George H. W. Bush and made Israel believe that it and the Gulf states had one common enemy: Iran. On that basis, Israel raised no objections to the sale of the U.S. fighter jets to the UAE, the reports said.

Of course, both sides deny such meetings; however, the relations between the two countries have become more visible in the last couple of years. Not only have pro-Israeli think tanks been funded and supported by the UAE, but also diplomatic, military and regional contacts between the two countries have increased year-on-year. We can say that there is much trust between Israel and the UAE thanks to a number of shared goals, and this goal is not only about Iran.

To be honest, I am suspicious that the UAE sees Iran as the biggest enemy. Remember, Gulf countries have supported the opposition fighting in Syria against Bashar Assad, who has been backed by Iran since the beginning of the civil war. Anisa Makhoul, Assad's mother, left the war-torn country in 2013, and was with her daughter in Dubai until her death. Her daughter Bushra Assad's husband was an army deputy chief of staff until he was killed in a bomb attack at the National Security Headquarters in Damascus in July 2013. She later enrolled her children in a private school in Dubai. In addition, a large number of businessmen and wealthy Syrians with close ties to the regime fled the deadly bloodshed in Syria to live out the war in Dubai.

You might then say that this is about Syria, not Iran; however, UAE banks, including state-owned ones, channeled billions of dollars from Iranian oil sales through its accounts during the sanctions before the Iran nuclear deal. In addition, Iran has always been the UAE's top destination for re-exports, or goods imported into the UAE and sold on to Iran.

Since bin Zayed put the powerful Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman in his pocket after King's Abdullah's death, the Syria policy of Saudi Arabia has also changed, while the relations between Saudi Arabia and Israel have started to mature.

According to bin Zayed and his pawn bin Salman, the Palestinian cause is a problem standing in the way of closer ties with Israel in order to establish a new order in the Middle East. That is why both are working hard to make Trump's so-called "Deal of the Century" possible between Israel and the Palestinians. According to U.S. officials, bin Salman said, "Israel has never attacked us, and we share a common enemy," referring to Iran several times, repeating the fictitious words of bin Zayed.

However, they actually share a number of other common enemies. From the emails leaked between UAE Ambassador Yousef al Otaiba and high-level managers and experts at the pro-Israeli think tank, the Foundation for Defense of Democracies (FDD), as well as talk on the Arab street, it is easy to see that the common enemies of Israel and the UAE are not only Iran, but also Turkey, Qatar, the Muslim Brotherhood and those who don't see the Brotherhood as an enemy. From Libya to Syria, Iraq or Yemen, common people silently utter the name of "the Emiratis," blaming the country for all that has happened following the Arab Spring.

You can see the fear in their eyes when they talk about bin Zayed or Dahlan and understand that they fear the UAE even more than Israel. According to many people I have spoken with in those countries, Dahlan made deals with the old guards, which were overthrown during the uprisings, to bring down al-Qaida-affiliated groups such as Daesh or the Nusra Front. Putting the blame on Turkey and Qatar for the spread of terror in the region, most likely, the UAE cheated the whole world while attempting to get rid of Islamists by funneling resources to al-Qaida-linked terror groups that could be used as a tool.

UAE-Turkish relations have always been a bit distant, but the UAE has been blatantly ramping up its anti-Turkey efforts – and not only in a war of words. From the Gezi events in 2013, which were depicted as a "Turkish Spring," to the July 15, 2016 coup attempt by the Gülenists, Turkish authorities have encountered Mohammed Dahlan's influence in various forms.

The UAE has funded anti-President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan groups, including the outlawed PKK, according to reports. Turkish Foreign Minister Mevlüt Çavuşoğlu was alluding to the UAE when he said after the failed coup attempt: "We know that a country gave $3 billion in financial support to the coup attempt in Turkey."

In fact, some UAE-based media openly declared their support for the coup. When you look at the conflicts and crises in the Middle East and North Africa, it is clear the two countries stand on completely opposite sides. The gap between Turkey and the UAE started to widen with the overthrow of Mohammed Morsi and continued in Syria. In North Africa, for instance in Libya, the UAE established an Egypt-Emirati axis against the Turkish-Qatari axis by backing Gen. Khalifa Haftar and initiated a civil war after Muammar Gadhafi was toppled. From Somalia to the Sudanese Red Sea port of Suakin, it is almost impossible not to see the UAE's efforts to block the influence of Ankara.

Maybe the UAE sees Turkey as a rival or, more than this, a powerful country with a powerful leader that has the ability to spoil the plans it has for a new order in the region, as hatched with Israel. I sometimes wonder if it was the UAE that caused bad blood between the Barack Obama administration and Ankara, which laid the foundation for later problems between Turkey and the U.S. – similarly, it has been trying to completely destroy the relations between Ankara and Riyadh. With such behavior, the UAE appears to be the world's leading Islamophobe, causing harmful rifts between Muslim nations.

“THE MUSLIM FACE OF INTERFAITH DIALOGUE”

Ahmed Hadji, peace advocate

Mufti Menk: The Muslim face of interfaith dialogue visits Uganda

It is now a matter of days before His Eminence Mufti Ismaili Menk, a renowned Muslim scholar and Muslim leader from Zimbabwe arrives in Uganda for his highly anticipated international lecture at Mandela National Stadium, Namboole in Kampala.

He is one of the most influential Muslim preachers in the world adored by millions across the globe for his balanced approach to issues, deep Islamic and contemporary knowledge and wisdom as well as his humanitarian and educational activities in Zimbabwe. The scholar has a very strong social media presence with over 10 million followers on different social media platforms. His messages inspire people from all religions to do good, help each other and reach out to humanity while preparing for the hereafter.

He is a fierce critic of extremism, intolerance and injustice; stressing that “If we are not brothers and sisters from our father Adam, then we are brothers and sisters in humanity”.

By virtue of the above, I see Mufti Menk as a blessing and Allah's gift to the world. Having him in Uganda will, therefore, be a special blessing. His visit matters to me, as a Muslim, a young person, a Ugandan, a peace activist and an education promoter. This is because his messages are spiritually empowering, inspiring to the youth and they build bridges, not walls.

As a country, his visit matters because we need his prayers, we need his bridge-building messages and we need his publicity. It should be remembered that millions of people worldwide will be following his visit closely.

I, therefore, expect all Ugandans, regardless of their religious back-ground, to attend his lecture and other engagements in Uganda.

Muslims, Christians, people of other faiths and atheists, let us all turn up on Sunday June 23 at Namboole stadium and listen to a message of peace from this international preacher; a pride of Africa, Allah's gift to humanity and a beacon of hope for youth across the religious and racial divide.

Let our ears listen to messages of peace that come from a voice of peace and a religion of peace.

Let Mufti Menk's message inspire the best in all of us – so that we see members of other faiths as our allies rather than the source of our greatest fears.

Together as Ugandans and in solidarity with Mufti Menk, let us pray for peace in Uganda, in the world and let that peace begin with us – Muslims and non-Muslims alike. Let that peace begin with me.

Let there be peace and tolerance and let these never end.

I jumped onto this plane...And as I went on – Subhanallah – you know there are pilots...they are flying us...they are doing us a favour – right – flying us. (Mufti Menk seems to have forgotten that we do pay for the tickets!)

There was a woman who came out from the front. She had proper Hijaab – proper Hijaab! She was covered correctly.

She was very well dressed. She carried herself in a very respectful way.

She addressed the people in a very respectful way.

And I saw her come in and go out”.

Our comment:

Subhanallah! Whatever happened to the following Aayah:

“And tell the Mu-mineen men that they should lower their gazes and guard their chastity. This is purer for them. Allāh Ta’ala is informed of what they do.”

AND WHAT HAPPENED TO THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS FROM ALLAH TA'ALA?

وَقَرْنَ فِي بُيُوتِكُنَّ وَلَا تَبَرَّجْنَ تَبَرُّجَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ الْأُولَىٰ وَأَقِمْنَ

And abide in your houses and do not display yourselves as [was] the display of the former times of ignorance. And establish prayer and give zakah and obey Allah and His Messenger. Allah intends only to remove from you the impurity [of sin], O people of the [Prophet's] household, and to purify you with [extensive] purification.

NABI SALLALLAHU ALAYHI WASALLAM SAID:

“Woman is aurah (i.e. an object of concealment). When she emerges (from her home), Shaytaan casts surreptitious glances at her (to ambush her and manipulate her for fitnah). And undoubtedly the closest she is to Allah Ta’ala is when she is at the innermost corner of her house.”

Mufti Menk says: “She went in and a little while later they jumped in and the plane started moving.

I said Subhanallah – ...we are being flown by a sister in the Deen...

We are proud of those who can maintain their Deen – their connection with Allah Ta’ala – whilst they have gone to the sky – literally to the sky...”.

Yet Mufti Menk audaciously and profusely praises the lady for acting in clear violation of the command of Allah Ta’ala and His beloved Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam!

A HADITH TO CONSIDER

Ma'qil ibn Yassar Radhiyallahu Anhu reports that Rasullullah (Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam) said:

“For one of you to be stabbed in the head with an iron needle is better for him than that he should touch a woman who is not permissible for him.”

Narrated by al-Tabaraani in al-Kabeer, 486

1 – The Hanafi madhhab:

Ibn Nujaym (Rahmatullah Alayh) said:

It is not permissible for a man to touch a woman's face or hands even if there is no risk of desire because it is haraam in principle and there is no necessity that would allow it.

Al-Bahr al-Raa'iq, 8/219

2 – The Maaliki madhhab:

Muhammad ibn Ahmad [‘Ulaysh] (Rahmatullah Alayh) said:

It is not permissible for a man to touch the face or hand of a non-mahram woman, and it is not permissible for him to put his hand on hers without a barrier. ‘Aa’ishah (may Allaah be pleased with her) said: “The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) never accepted a woman's oath of allegiance by shaking hands with her; rather he (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) used to accept their oath of allegiance by words only." According to another report, "His hand never touched the hand of a woman, rather he would accept their oath of allegiance by words only."

(Manh al-Jaleel Sharh Mukhtasar Khaleel, 1/223)

3 – The Shaafi'i madhhab:

Al-Nawawi said:

It is not permissible to touch a woman in any way.

Al-Majmoo', 4/515.

Wali al-Deen al-'Iraaqi (Rahmatullah Alayh) said:

This indicates that the hand of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) did not touch the hand of any woman apart from his wives and concubines, whether in the case of accepting the oath of allegiance or in other cases. If he did not do that despite the fact that he was infallible and beyond suspicion, then it is even more essential that others heed this prohibition. It appears from the texts that he refrained from doing that because it was haraam for him to do so. The fuqaha' among our companions and others said that it is haraam to touch a non-mahram woman even if that is not touching parts of her body that are not ‘awrah, such as her face. But they differed with regard to looking when there is no desire and no fear of fitnah. The prohibition on touching is stronger than the prohibition on looking, and it is haraam when there is no necessity that would allow it. If it is the case of necessity, e.g. medical treatment, removing a tooth or treating the eyes, etc., if there is no woman who can do that, then it is permissible for a non-mahram to do that because it is the case of necessity.

Tarh al-Tathreeb, 7/45, 46

4 – The Hanbali madhhab

Ibn Muflih (Rahmatullah Alayh) said:

Abu ‘Abd-Allaah – i.e., Imam Ahmad (Rahmatullah Alayh) – was asked about a man who shakes hands with a woman. He said, No, and was emphatic that it is haraam. I said, Should he shake hands with her from beneath his garment? He said, No. Shaykh Taqiy al-Deen (Rahmatullah Alayh) also favoured the view that it is prohibited, and gave the reason that touching is more serious than looking.

MUFTI MENK REFERRING TO THE MOST SACRED OF IBAADAH - THE SUJOOD AS A "SUPER SPREADER OF THE VIRUS"

Hereby follows a transcript of the audio clip that appears in the above WhatsApp chat with Mufti Menk.

Here he admits that he clearly stated that the sacred places of Sujood are "Super spreaders" of the virus!

*"I'm telling you guys, wait two weeks, three weeks, and then talk again. Let's see how you change your tune. We're telling you from now, you know the Masjid is one of the super spreaders

THE CIA IS ALLEDGEDLY HEAVILY INVOLVED WITH GÜLEN

“In the year 2002, Russian intelligence agency FSB determined that FETÖ schools were directly linked to US intelligence agencies and were conducting intelligence operations against Russia’s national interests on behalf of the CIA.”

“The leader of the organisation, Fethullah Gülen, has been residing in the U.S. state of Pennsylvania since 1999. Gülen’s U.S. residency permit application included names from American intelligence and foreign affairs communities among its references.

Some of the prominent names among those are as follows: former Director of the CIA Analysis Department George Fidas, former Chief of CIA’s Turkey bureau and former U.S. Ambassador to Ankara Morton Abromowitz. All of these names praised the academic successes of Gülen’s schools around the world and referred to Gülen as an important scholar in the field of interfaith dialogue in their references.”

But the government of Turkey says FETÖ as an International Threat

MAKING YOUTUBE VIDEOS

SUBMITTED BY ADMIN ON WED, 2016-07-27 07:42

Q: Is it fine if I make youtube videos?

A: Pictures of all animate objects are declared forbidden and haraam in Islam. Severe warnings have been sounded in the Ahaadith for the one who has any involvement in this grave sin. Hazrat Abdullah bin Mas'ood (Radiyahallahu Anhu) reports that Rasulullah (Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam) said:

“Undoubtedly, the people subject to the worst forms of punishment on the day of Qiyaamah are those involved in picture-making.”

Hence you should refrain from having any involvement in making videos.

And Allah Ta'ala (الله تعالى) knows best.

MUFTI MENK - WHAT'S THE ISSUE?

Q: Can one listen to all inspirational speakers?

A: One must only listen to those who teach the Deen without compromise and act accordingly.

Q: Mufti Menk will be visiting my town. Should I attend his talks?

A: No

Q: Why?

A: Amongst other issues, he has an OFFICIAL statement [<https://muftimenk.com/statements/>] saying he is not homophobic (which means he has no problem at all with homosexuals). *This is against our Deen. * Homosexuality is a filthy disease being propagated by the kuffar. Every genuine Muslim must take a strong stand against homosexuality and non-repentant homosexuals.

He also lectured at a conference in Dubai aimed at making Islam equal to other religions. He made many shocking statements in that speech.

In summary, due to Mufti Menks own statements we are compelled to warn those who wish to know, that if you wish to protect your Deen and the Deen of your children, protect them from personalities who compromise the Haqq. Until Mufti Menk does not OFFICIALLY RETRACT from his wrongs, keep a safe distance!

May Allah Ta'aala guide us and him. Aameen.

The Interview with Radio24syv – a National Talk Radio in Denmark

“actually my work is all about love and integration and peace and I know that over the years we have all developed and we have become more conscious coming together and respecting each other” (Mufti Menk)

What does this mean? Love between all religions? Yes, Allah Ta’ala commands us to be fair and just to all and He allows us to live in harmony with those who do not fight us on the basis of religion. However, love is something that’s not for all and sundry. Allah Ta’ala says:

O you who believe, do not take My enemies and your enemies as allies, extending to them affection while they have disbelieved in what came to you of the truth (Surah Al-Mumtahinah)

O you who believe, do not take your fathers or your brothers as allies if they have preferred disbelief over belief. And whoever does so among you – then it is those who are the wrongdoers. (Surah At-Taubah)

O you who believe, do not take the Jews and the Christians as allies. They are [in fact] allies of one another. And whoever is an ally to them among you – then indeed, he is [one] of them. Indeed, Allah Ta’ala guides not the wrongdoing people. (Surah Al-Ma’idah)

Therefore, Mufti Menk needs to clarify whether he means love between all religions, as is the apparent meaning or is it confined to Muslims, as commanded by Allah Ta'ala? Integration? To what extent? When there is a conflict between religion and “integration”, what takes precedence?

“Her name was Inger Stolberg. I actually learnt to say her name properly... I think she is a good woman... she is a respected sister” (Mufti Menk)

Was this statement really intended or are we missing something? Inger is a big enemy of Islam who repeatedly made inflammatory and hateful statements against Muslims. She has a special affinity with the despicable and disgusting cartoons of Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam to the point that she would even keep it as her wallpaper on her phone. Mufti Menk says she is a good woman and praises her. Why would he do that? He could not be ignorant regarding her because he is praising her and pronouncing her name perfectly. Why does he praise such a vile woman? Who would call such a person “a good woman”?

On what grounds does Mufti Menk accord ‘respect’ to a woman who hates Islam and Muslims and passionately mocks Rasullullah Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam?

“I had made a mistake... We develop over time, we say things differently over time, we change our minds over time...I come from Zimbabwe, a third world country, I was brought up in a country where if you talk about homosexuality, if you promote it, up to today it is banned, it is illegal in this country, and many many countries, and we were taught from young, from when we were in school that it is not allowed and so on. As you grow and you travel, you begin to learn and you see. There was a time when I spoke about homosexuals” (Mufti Menk)

Shocking! He made a mistake in the past? What was the mistake? Condemning pornography? Condemning homosexuality and homosexuals? Or did we miss something again? Is it backwards to be uncomfortable with them or condemn them? What about Lut Alayhis Salaam condemnation of the actions of his nation (specifically homosexuality) as well as his condemnation of them, as a nation? Were his actions backward? Should he have travelled like Mufti Menk and learnt over time?

Allah Ta'ala says:

And [remember] Lut, when he said to his people, "Do you commit such immorality as no one has preceded you with from among the worlds [i.e. peoples]? Indeed, you approach men with desire, instead of women. Rather, you are a transgressing people." But the answer of his people was only that they said, "Evict them from your city! Indeed, they are men who keep themselves pure." So, We saved him and his family, except for his wife; she was of those who remained [with the evildoers]. And We rained upon them a rain [of stones]. Then see how was the end of the criminals.

(Sūrah Al-A'rāf)

And [mention] Lut, when he said to his people, "Do you commit immorality while you are seeing? Do you indeed approach men with desire instead of women? Rather, you are a people who are exhibiting ignorance."

(Sūrah Naml)

Next, his condemnation of homosexuality (previously) was based purely on his country of origin? Lastly, what was learnt upon his travels, and how did he grow? Did he learn - in the first world countries - that homosexuality and homosexuals should not be criticised?

“after I was corrected by someone, I actually have a retraction on my website, my Facebook and a lot of my pages, saying that what I had said was actually wrong and based on a mis-notion. We cannot say that someone is worse than an animal, we need to understand human beings and understand that they are honourable” (Mufti Menk)

Allāh Ta’ala says regarding the disbelievers:

Then We return him to the lowest of the low (Sūrah At-Tīn)

Those are like animals (livestock); rather, they are more astray. (Sūrah Al-A’rāf)

Indeed, they (hypocrites in the time of Nabī Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam) are dirt. (Sūrah At-Taubah)

Does he think that these verses are wrong? Further, those who are gay and wish to practise or promote it ‘peacefully’, does he not think they are worse than animals? Animals do not spread this type of abnormal and harmful behaviour amongst humans! What about the movements which vigorously promote LGBTQ (who corrupt innocent people and silence all opposition), are their members also honourable in his eyes?

“when you look at pornography, if your country allows it, I didn’t know that and I didn’t say that you must break the law of the country... I do not watch it, I will not promote, I still believe that you cannot just sit and watch people having sex, perhaps it may or may not lead to so many other things, because a lot of people start with masturbation. There’s a whole discussion with regards to whether masturbation is a good thing or a bad thing.”

(Mufti Menk)

Pornography is one of the filthiest acts that humans can engage in on the basis of morals, religion as well as intellect. Why did Mufti Menk not make a clear-cut condemnation of it? Why is he making it seem like opposing it is just a personal opinion as opposed to something clearly detestable that all rational and moral people – whether Muslim or non-Muslim – should oppose?

“I thought to myself that If this tweet is going to cause a problem in a country with its people then I am bigger than a problem. I need to delete it so the people of Denmark live in peace so I deleted it to do a favour to Inger Stolberg. That’s the reason why I took it out.”

(Mufti Menk)

Really? If an Islāmic teaching causes some degree of discomfort to non-Muslims in a distant land, who do not even speak the same language, it should be deleted and referred to as a ‘problem’? Does Islam not strongly condemn acts like homosexuality and immorality (pornography)? Are those who disbelieve in Allāh and promote homosexuality not worse than animals in the light of Qur’ān? How is it that the happiness of the disbelievers is sought, at the expense of the Deen of Allah? How many more commands and teachings of Deen will be played down or hidden, when the disbelievers place travel bans or get upset with us?

(Do you believe in equal rights between women and men?)

Yes, absolutely! I stand for it; I advocate it and I agree with it” (Mufti Menk)

Does ‘equal rights’ mean the same according to him, like it means to them i.e. males and females have the exact same rights? Both can issue divorce; they receive the same shares in inheritance etc.? He needs to explain, leaving no room for ambiguity or misinterpretation.

“If a person wants to be, they are free to be homosexual, if they don’t want to be, they are free not to be but it’s not okay to force anyone’s opinion on another person... Like I said, I’m not and if someone else is not, it doesn’t mean they need to promote hatred, the beating, killing etc of someone who chooses otherwise” (Mufti Menk)

‘It’s not okay to force anyone’s opinion on another person.’ What does this mean? Are we allowed to criticise and condemn the act and the mentality? Can we not condemn the ‘pride parade’? He needs to explain so that we can be sure that he is not like those scholars who are leaning closer and closer by the day towards the ‘queer’ ones.

Further, irrespective of the idea that it's a secular right in some states, how can any sensible person be fine with it? Should people have the right and freedom to commit open lewd acts – in any state or country? Should the people of Lut Alayhis Salaam have had the freedom to engage in intercourse with the same sex? Would he be okay with that? Those who, like Lut Alayhis Salaam condemn the act and the perpetrators are wrong? Are they forcing their views upon others and spreading hate?

(Can a woman shake hands with a man?) I believe that you're totally free to shake the hand if you want to shake the hand. (If I visited you in Zimbabwe, you will shake my hand?) if you come, it's okay, I'm not going to make you feel awkward and upset" (Mufti Menk)

Can he show us a hadith that allows this? On the other hand, the ahādīth state:

1. I do not shake the hands of women (Nasā'ī)

2. Aaisha Radhiyallahu Anha says that Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam never touched the hands of a woman, unless he had possession of her (i.e. his wife or slave girl) (Bukhārī)

Should the way of Rasūlullāh Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Salla be abandoned to please and comfort a strange non-Muslim woman?

Al-Manar International Tolerance Conference, Dubai, UAE

“When you look at someone you totally disagree with, pause for a moment and tell yourself that my father and this person’s father is the same... We as Muslims believe that Allāh created us for his worship but there are others who are entitled to exist... we cannot cross the limits and become intolerant of those who think otherwise, they think differently to us; they are our brothers and sisters...If you sit and ponder for a moment where you came from and where the person you totally disagree with came from you will realise you are one family.” (Mufti Menk)

Yes, we cannot just kill or hurt those who disagree with us, but to establish brotherhood between Muslims and disbelievers is a teaching contrary to Islāmic teachings. Nabī ﷺ said, “A Muslim is a brother of another Muslim.” In Islām, we strongly believe that religion either brings people together or separates them. A stranger (biologically) becomes our brother because of his beliefs whereas, a brother (biologically) will in some laws be treated like a stranger if he has different beliefs. From which verse/hadith does Mufti Menk wish to establish brotherhood between Muslims and kuffar? Being the same specie (human) does not make us brothers in light of Qur'ān and Sunnah.

You cannot impose guidance - which you believe (emphasised by Mufti Menk himself) is guidance - upon everyone.” (Mufti Menk)

Is this with regards to fellow Muslims or does it include non-Muslims, like the major part of the talk? This was vague in the talk; hence we are asking. If it is with regards to non-Muslims, what was the need to emphasise that it is only our belief? Is our belief (Islam) not the only truth?

What's meant by imposing here? Yes, we may not force them to adopt our beliefs, but we definitely do not need to discuss anything. Rather we need to invite and call (without overstepping the boundaries of Sharīah) others to Islam and invite them to abandon all else. We are upon the truth and we need everyone to accept these beliefs, for their own salvation. If they do not accept, they will be doomed.

[There is no mention of non-Muslims beliefs being definitely wrong and a disturbing amount of indications that we should only think that they might be wrong. One of these are:] Keep on educating yourself. I know one might say that as a Muslim, I believe that I am 100% correct. Yes, I do. I actually do as well but you know what, do you realise that people of other faiths and even those who don't have a faith, they too would perhaps believe or they have the right to believe that they are 100% correct and I have the right to believe that perhaps (emphasis ours) they are wrong" (Mufti Menk)

Perhaps they are wrong? Is that not a very dangerous statement? Portraying doubt regarding whether kufr is wrong? They are definitely wrong and we firmly believe that if a person dies upon any religion besides the Dīn of Muhammad Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam, he is doomed to hell. Mufti Menk needs to affirm this and retract his statement above. Further, what should Muslims educate themselves about? How other religions could also be fine?

Another point to note here is that the nature of disbelief and the disbelievers is that they are full of doubts and uncertainty.

Even if they pretend to be a hundred percent sure of themselves, deep down they are not free of doubt, as explained in different places in the Qur’ān.

“One of the first stories we come up with is the story of Abu Lahab. When the Prophet Muhammad - peace be upon him - in Makkah, called the people of Quraysh, his own people, upon a mountain known as mount Safa and he tells them, ‘O people, if I were to tell you there’s an army behind this mountain coming to attack you, would you actually believe?’ They said, ‘Obviously we would believe immediately. We’ve known you as a truthful person. You’ve never lied to us, why would you.’ He says, “Well, I’m warning you of a severe punishment that will come in your direction if you do not quit your bad ways and habits.” What were their bad ways and habits? It’s important for us to know the context and to know what exactly was happening. They were engaged in every sin in the book. Every sin there was to commit. They stole wealth, they treated their women so badly as objects. They bought and sold people. They actually bought and sold women. Women were treated as ‘property’ and this is why if this is still happening today, it has nothing to do with Islām. Individuals are to blame, not the religion. Sometimes certain cultures happen to be very backward in their treatment of women and yet Islām is being blamed as a religion when Islam gave honour to a woman and dignity such. Do you know the rules of covering modestly in Islam are closely connected to not being judged by your looks?” (Mufti Menk)

Once again, shockwaves were sent down our spines. Our fears of perennialism/secularism being given some support in these talks are strengthened greatly by the above statements.

1. Firstly, where did he find the hadīth in the words that he has quoted above? Which version has the part, ‘if you do not quit your bad ways and habits’. Nabī ﷺ said, ‘Whoever falsely attributes anything to me, he should prepare his abode in the Fire.’

2. Secondly, whether it’s a basic perusal or an in-depth study of the ahādīth, both will reveal that the core of Nabī’s Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam call in Makkah was that of Tauhīd (worshipping and obeying Allāh alone) and Risālah

(accepting Nabī Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam as the messenger of Allāh! Everything else was secondary. Abū Lahab would tail Nabī Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam and belie him, when the only call he would sound to the people was, “Say Lā ilāha illa llāh so that you can be successful.” Thus, we were flabbergasted when he went on to explain the reason for a punishment coming down and he explained the context to be everything else, whilst omitting Tauhid! It’s as if the evil of shirk was downplayed whilst that which is considered evil in the modern world was given preference. Where did he get this from (we hope that he did not concoct it from his own side)? Why was Tauhid omitted?

3. “They bought and sold people. They actually bought and sold women.” Is he referring to slavery? What else could this be a reference to? Was slavery a reason for the punishment of Allāh? Is slavery wrong? Is it wrong to have female slaves and enjoy intimacy with them? If this is really what he meant, then we have no option but to say that he has criticised Nabī Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam, the Sahābah Radhiyallahu Anhum and many generations of pious Muslims. Further, he lied against Allāh! Whilst Islām greatly exhorts Muslims to free slaves and treat them in a beautiful, dignified and equal manner, it nonetheless allows it and supports it. Today, slavery in its original form may have been abolished but we all know that those who have abolished it are the very same people who have made people slaves in many different ways. A lot has been written to prove that slavery, with the etiquette of Islām is far better than what we are witnessing today.

- ❖ Since the Dubai conference was titled “Tolerance Conference” and Mufti Menk spoke extensively about having tolerance and respect for those who you completely differ with, as perhaps they could be correct and teach you a thing or two, whilst you could be the one who is incorrect, we thought that this would be his approach and personal practice. Lo and behold! This is not the case. We present to you his comments with those who he perhaps doesn’t completely disagree with and is supposed to share many beliefs with.

With the lockdown in most countries being almost over and some scientists' disapproval thereof, we can say for sure that even amongst non-Muslims the idea of lockdown was not one which could only accommodate one view. Naturally, there were Muslims and scholars whose īmān and their love and passion for the Masājīd forced them to see through the incoherence of lockdown and rally for the non-closure of Masājīd. Mufti Menk did not display the tolerance he spoke about when dealing with these Muslims, who were in fact scholars!

This is one of the voice clips he sent out:

Assalāmu Alaykum, the date today is the 23rd March, Monday. The time right now is two o'clock. I just saw a certain group of 'Ulamā' calling, saying or arguing about the Masājīd and it. I really believe that it is unprecedented. I want to tell you guys people are positive, they are dying, they are battling for their lives but you don't know, and most of them are our people, guys be responsible, don't be stupid please (with a raised voice)! Allāhu Akbar, May Allāh forgive all of us. We have failed our Ummah.

Subhānallāh, this is the level of respect and tolerance for the views of other 'Ulamā', many of whom are elder, more qualified and far more knowledgeable than him! The gradual end of lockdown despite the increase of cases is clear evidence that they were not the ones 'being stupid'! Do Jews, Christians and Hindus deserve more respect than 'Ulamā' who follow the Nabawī and Islamic approach?

MUFTI MENK'S PLEA TO THE UMMAH - WE REJECT IT!

Radio ""Izlam"" website had a podcast of Mufti Menk calling on the stopping of Ulama defaming other Ulama during a disagreement.

I say, this is another propaganda strategy of the one-sided Radio ""Izlam"" - while on it, we challenge Radio ""Izlam"" to issue a public statement of theirs regarding what they say about the Kaafir Shi'ahs!

Regarding Mufti Menk, history shows him not being a genuine and righteous Aalim - Heir of the Ambiya, because:

1. He does NOT observe Hijaab. In a plane he 'marveled' at the 'scarf' of a Muslim WOMAN crew member. So, he fails in observing Hijaab, yet he is a Mufti, thus, we should NOT take his Shaitaani plea he harped on in this podcast of the one-sided radio broadcaster!

Just the other day, I was made aware of Mufti Menk sitting side-by-side with a young girl while been videoed! He does NOT give a damn of the Laws of Allah, so how can we take his faulty plea to stop disuniting the Ummah. Nay, he and his cronies are disuniting the Ummah. If he and his cronies (Molvi Bham, Karan and Jamiat) had sat quiet when one group went to government to ask leeway to let Masjid be open again with certain restrictions, then there would be no problem.

2. Ship cruise: He arranged for this Haraam cruise ship event and dubbed it 'Islamic ship cruise' and termed it as 'Navigating to Jannah'. I wonder what happened what happened when couples went to the upper-deck and went to 'chill' at the pool. Was Hijaab observed by the men from the wives of their friends? It boggles my mind to even think of a Mufti to arrange such a Haraam cruise!

3. Seerah Jalsah: He spoke about the Seerah at Noorul-Islam Masjid in Lenz while been videoed! Imagine, speaking about the noble life of Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) yet in a Haraam way?!

4. Pictography: Yes, his social platforms are flooded with his own pictures. Twitter, videos, You-Tube, WhatsApp and other platforms are filled with his pictures.

5. An enemy of Sajdah! Yes, he is an open enemy of Sajdah. In a clip, I heard him saying that we should not go Masjid because when we in Sajdah, then all the virus will enter your nose and you will get sick.

How sickly-analogy! Sajdah is most loved by Allah. The closest we can get to Allah is in Sajdah. Yet, this enemy of Sajdah has a problem with Sajdah!

Can we follow a Masjid-Sajdah-Hater?

He, and his gang (Bham, Ravat and Karan, and Co.) can go fly kite rather than interfering in this serious matter of commenting on the group trying to open the Masjid the legal way.

In their flying kite, I think there's no risk of losing Imaan, unlike in objecting to those who want to Masjid open

May we see through the true colours of these chaps who have forked-tongues

MOULANA BHAM'S PASSIONATE DEFENCE OF MUFTI MENK!

Following the attempted assault on renowned Zimbabwean scholar Mufti Ismail Menk, secretary general of the Jamiatul Ulama South Africa Moulana Ebrahim Bham has voiced his concerns about the incident.

ML BHAM told Radio Islām:

“This particular aspect of extremism which has reared its head in our community perturbs me tremendously,”

THEN ML BHAM said people do feel entitled and passionate about expressing their views regarding the Qur’ān, the Prophet Muhammad Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam, his teachings and Islām in general, and he feels this MUST BE

ACCOMMODATED AND NOBODY CAN DENY THEM THAT RIGHT.

YOU BE THE JUDGE

CAN THERE BE ANYTHING FURTHER FROM THE TRUTH THAN THIS?

My Boss is the Almighty
I work for Him
I spread His Word
With love for His Creation
I guide with His Book
He decides where I go
He decides where I don't
He uses me to spread good
I pray He always will
I always trust Him fully
He only does what is best
Why should I be upset
When my Boss is in control?
Oh Lord, I am still Yours
Save me from all evil
Help me to spread love
Guide us all

HOW MENK STABBED KASHMIRI MUSLIMS IN THE BACK!

Behind the Saffron Curtain

On Aug. 5, New Delhi revoked the 'special autonomous status' accorded by the country's Constitution to India-administered Kashmir, pop. 12.5 million, and turned it into the world's largest prison. Here are some quick facts on Indian actions and atrocities there:

Indian-held Kashmir is spread over 222,236 kilometers² and with 600,000 Indian security personnel deployed there by New Delhi, that's 1 soldier for every 0.27 km² or 1 soldier for every 15 Kashmiris

At least 152 people have been wounded by Indian forces, according to data collected by international news agencies from the region's two main hospitals since the start of the curfew earlier this month

Washington, D.C.-based Genocide Watch, coordinator of the International Alliance to End Genocide, has issued a "genocide alert" for Indian-held Kashmir. Such alerts are declared when signs of the early stages of a genocidal process become apparent

The Jammu and Kashmir Coalition of Civil Society has reported over 70,000 killings from 1990 to 2016 by the Indian Armed Forces. With 586 casualties in 2018, last year set a grisly record for the highest number of killings in a single year

Amnesty International, based in London, U.K., has also reported that disappearances, torture and rape of Kashmiri Muslims by Indian Army units are commonplace in the region

A report released earlier this year by the Office of the U.N. High Commissioner for Human Rights found that Indian security personnel have often used excessive force to respond to protests since July 2016

Summary

Sincere readers and those truly desiring the Haq will indeed be shocked at the overwhelming evidence produced in which Menk habitually, persistently and propagates a distorted form of Islam. To cap it all, Menk unashamedly and publicly labels those who are fearlessly proclaiming the Haq to be psychopaths!

Following him blindly indeed imperils one's very own Imaan. There can be no greater a loss than the loss of Imaan. A person who passes away without Imaan is damned to the fire of Jahannam for eternity.

Menk is clearly ignorant when he claims that the Shahaadah is sufficient for Imaan. In addition to Shahaadah, a person is compelled to accept all the commands of Allah Ta'ala.

We need to be very cautious when it comes to Imaan and the acquisition of Deeni knowledge. We should look at the fundamental beliefs and actions of a scholar before adopting him as a guide. We should acquire knowledge from those who follow and practise on Islam.

All that is needed in order to understand the Haq, is a flicker Imaan and a spark of simple healthy common sense.

May Allah Ta'ala grant us plenty of both the above and save us from the misguided scholars. Ameen

WHAT'S THE ISSUE?

What you can do in order to assist the Ummah!

Menk is a regular guest of honour on Radio Islam which operates under the auspices of JUSA.

Menk uses Radio “Islam” to passionately propagate and to vigorously defend his distorted and personal views on Islam.

Radio “Islam” glorifies, lionesses and venerates Menk and portrays him to be the ultimate hero of this Ummah.

The unholy alliance between the pro-western, liberal Jusa, Menk and Radio “Islam” is causing much Fitnah, havoc and disunity amongst the unsuspecting Muslim masses as is clear from the evidence produced.

Unless Radio “Islam” does not publicly distance itself from Menk’s warped Kufr-loving ideology and Hindu supporting stance, it will not be permissible to donate, advertise, support, patronise or be employed by the Radio Station.

This is the least that you as a Muslim can do to assist the Deen of Allah and his beloved

Rasool Sallallaahu alayhi wasallam.

“And upon us is only to give the message”!

10 DUAS FOR A GOOD MAUT

1) O Allah, infuse patience in us and cause us to die as Muslims.

Surah Al A'araaf #126

2) O The Maker of the skies and the earth. You are my guardian in this world and the hereafter. Cause me to die as a Muslim and join me with the pious.

Surah Yusuf #101

3) Allow me to die as a Muslim and unite me with the pious.

Mustadrak #1900

4) O Allah, we have believed, so forgive our sins and pardon our transgressions and let us die with the righteous.

Musannaf ibn Abi Shaybah #3025

5) O Allah, cause us to die as Muslims and join us with the pious, not amongst those who were put to shame nor from those who were tested.

Mustadrak #4308

6) O Allah, allow me to live as a humble person, cause me to die as a humble person and raise me (on the Day of Judgement) in the company of the humble.

Ibn Maajah # 4126

7) O Allah, You have created me and You will also cause me to die. Hence, life and death are both in Your control. If You are going to keep me alive then protect me in the way You have protected Your virtuous servants and if I am to die then please forgive me and have mercy on me. O Allah, I beg You for ease.

Muslim #2712

8) O Allah, I seek Your protection that You should turn Your face away from me on the Day of Judgement. O Allah, keep me alive as a Muslim and cause me to die as a Muslim. Mu'jamul Kabir #7048

9) O Allah, do not cause us to die a sudden death, nor seize us by surprise nor make us unmindful of any duty or advice.

Jam'ul Fawaaid #108

10) O Allah, make Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam our guide and make his pond (Haudh-e-Kausar) a place for quenching our thirst. O Allah, raise us (on the Day of Judgement) amongst his assembly, enable us to follow his Sunnah, cause us to die adhering to his religion and raise us from amongst his group.
